As part of its ongoing effort to be a full-service health and wellness resource center, the Food Bank of Yolo County rolled out a new monthly Agency Spotlight feature on its web site beginning Thursday.

The Food Bank, which supports more than 70 local agencies, will run a month-long feature story on its web site every month to highlight the accomplishments of its partner agencies.

The Food Bank hopes that this effort will help raise awareness about the various health and human services available to Yolo County residents. According to Executive Director Jose Martinez "Our job in helping feed the community would be much more difficult if not for the agencies we support."

The first agency to be featured will be Cache Creek Lodge. A 39-bed co-ed residential substance abuse treatment center, Cache Creek Lodge has been assisting individuals battling addiction reclaim their lives since 1974.

For more information and to view the Agency Spotlight, visit the Food Bank's web site at: www.foodbankyc.org.
