

Frequently Asked Questions:

1. How much does a can of food weigh?

The weight may vary depending upon size, but the average can weighs about a pound.

2. How can I get my donation to FBYC?

Please contact our Community Relations Coordinator to schedule a donation delivery time. The FBYC warehouse accepts donations Monday through Friday from 8:30am-2pm.

3. Why do I need to register my event?

Registering your food & fund drive enables us to provide the best service possible. We can coordinate donation crate pick ups, provide helpful resources such as FBYC brochures, promote your drive, and coordinate a donation delivery. We appreciate your hard work and want to show it!

4. Where are you located?

We are located at 1244 Fortna Avenue in Woodland. Head north on East Street and turn right onto Fortna Avenue. The Food Bank office is on the right hand side and the warehouses are behind.

5. Where does my group's donation go?

Our Rural Food Delivery (RFD) program relies heavily on donations from food drives. Through this program, FBYC provides food to about 800 families each month.

6. Would you rather I donate money or food?

FBYC values all donations. Food drives provide high quality food and enables us to successfully operate our programs. Food donations are also a great way to feel directly connected to those in need. Cash donations are also gladly accepted. Monetary donations allow us to support programs, facilities, administrative costs, and stretch $1 into $11 worth of food value. Your dollars are hard at work!
